Rustic, but elegant.

With a rustic but elegant look, these cases are made of 100% recycled and recyclable cardboard. We replace the inner wrapping and add a perforated line to open the cases, guaranteeing hygiene and first use.

Printed in soy inks to facilitate recycling and complete the recycling loop.

Soy ink is produced from refined soybean oil, making it more environmentally friendly than petroleum-based ink.

These ecological accessories are made from renewable plant residues. The appearance of the final product presents a unique effect of wheat fiber particles that clearly differentiates each complement from the standard product.
